Whether this be the case or not is left to you. The fact is that Garvey has been arrested...

The Negro Moses has been arrested...

There is no doubt but that his arrest will cause a substantial addition to the number of followers...

Hereafter his critics have been able to be pleased by his arrest...

Money talks, and dividends of financial reports showing the expenditures of the thousands of dollars estimated to have been made...

The Negro Moses is now going to be flouted by epistomers who rise from among them...

We hope that it may be found that there has been method in the seeming madness of Garvey and that his manipulations have been effective...

We consider the arrest of Marcus Garvey as an incident of the most important character...

It is not the beginning of the end for him and his schemes.
