THE SUPREME COURT DECIDES AGAINST DAVIS IN ODD FELLOWS CASE

MEMBER OF SOCIETY OF FRIENDS PLEADS FOR PEACEFUL PROTEST OF WRONGS BY NEGROES.

Says Record of Fifty Years
Achievement is Without Par-alleled in History and a Cheerful Attempt at Solution of Problems is Preferable to All Others.

By WILLIAM C. ALLEN

Washington, D. C., March 10.—The Supreme Court today decided against the Society of Friends in its case against the United States, which was brought by the Society of Friends, a religious organization, to prevent the government from using its property for the purpose of promoting the cause of the negro.

The court, in a unanimous decision, held that the government has the right to use its property for the purpose of promoting the cause of the negro, and that the Society of Friends has no right to prevent the government from doing so.

The Society of Friends, which was founded in 1808, is a religious organization that has been active in the cause of the negro for many years. It has been successful in many of its efforts, and its record is without parallel in history.

The Society of Friends has a long and honorable record of achievement in the cause of the negro. It has been successful in many of its efforts, and its record is without parallel in history. The Society of Friends has a long and honorable record of achievement in the cause of the negro.
