Founded in San Francisco in 1972, and with 13 locations across the U.S., Hamburger Mary's is a full service bar and grill for open-minded people, with a menu that includes gourmet burgers, appetizers, soups, salads and entrees, and an extensive bar menu featuring craft beer and cocktails. Furthermore, Hamburger Mary's offers a flamboyant dining experience, along with nightly entertainment from their "Dining with the Divas" drag shows and charity "HamBingo Mary's" to MaryOke-Karaoke and trivia nights. In Dallas, various events and drag shows will take place nightly, coordinated and hosted by local drag legend Danny Lee Cabrera aka "Liquor Mini". Danny is an award-winning karaoke host in the Dallas area and also a veteran flight attendant and the lead queen for "Fly Queens", a group of airline Drag Queens that travel the world entertaining. He has hosted numerous events in the Dallas drag community for over a decade.

From franchisee Arthur Hood of HV Entertainment:

"HV Entertainment and Hamburger Mary's look forward to bringing this internationally loved franchise to the Dallas community and the Oak Lawn Neighborhood. Since its inception, Hamburger Mary's has served as a safe haven for both employees and customers alike in the LGBTQIA+ community, and that tradition will proudly continue at the Dallas location."

Founded by Arthur Hood and Erwing Villanueva, Dallas-based HV entertainment own and operate a number entertainment venues across the United States made up of restaurants, bars, nightclubs and live music venues. HV Entertainment specializes in the development and redevelopment of existing bars, restaurants, and entertainment venues.
